Hüsnü Özyeğin gives support to education of girls

Chairman of Fiba Holding Hüsnü Özyeğin continues to provide support for education. Mr. Özyeğin is going to construct six dormitories with 900 beds for girls, a high school and three elementary schools.

Fiba Holding's chairman Hüsnü Özyeğin, accelerated his support for commitment to society. Özyeğin is providing scholarships to university students through his Foundation which was founded in 1989 in addition to constructing dormitories and schools for the girls living in Eastern and South-Eastern part of Turkey. The Foundation's name was changed to Hüsnü M. Özyeğin Foundation from Finans Foundation last month. Mr. Özyeğin stated that he spent 50 million dollars for projects such as this one since the establishment of the Foundation.
